

About the Program

The Technical Certificate (T.C.) in Homeland Security and Emergency Management prepares students for employment in the field of emergency management with a specialization in homeland security.

Students will learn the basic tenets in emergency management and homeland security that are encompassed in the phases of mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery.

This program requires a minimum of 27 credit hours. Total program hours may vary based on the student's individual academic degree plan. This program is not eligible for financial aid.

Program Requirements

Students must fulfill all requirements outlined in the college catalog.

Important for You to Know

This academic roadmap does not include developmental education courses in reading, writing, and/or mathematics or other prerequisite courses that you may be required to take. In addition, it does not include technical certificate graduation requirements.

This certificate articulates directly into the Emergency Administration and Management (2404) (A.S.) degree, which includes a Mathematical Thinking in Context math pathway.

Sample Roadmap

This sample roadmap shows one possible pathway to program completion and may not be appropriate for all students.

Prior to enrolling in classes, please meet with an advisor for specific guidance about your individual academic plan. Some courses are offered only once per year; advising is critical for course progression.

See the program requirements for general education course options.*

This program includes a Mathematical Thinking in Context math pathway. This pathway is intended for students in the broadest range of programs of study. In this pathway, students will explore a variety of mathematical concepts utilizing multiple ways of thinking to formulate and solve problems in context.
